Till Nightfall

A Musical Journey into the Night

directed by James Fisk

After the success of its first musical production (A Show That Goes Like This) last winter, the Chaincourt Theatre Company follows this up with another revue in the summer, this time in its open-air location on the heritage-protected grounds of the Westend Campus. During the performance, the show will use the natural progression of day into night to thematically underscore the concept of the production. As in the first revue, Till Nightfall will feature a live band along with singers and dancers to highlight songs from a wide variety of both modern and classic musicals including My Fair Lady, Mary Poppins, West Side Story, Sweeney Todd, and Spring Awakening.

The Chaincourt Theatre Company is part of the Institut für England- und Amerikastudien (IEAS), Goethe University Frankfurt am Main, where English theatre in all its diversity has been produced for over fifty years. Members include students, alumni, and staff of the IEAS.
